Flexible, facility-wide communications are important when managing the operations of your detention facility. With 8 to 32 selections on the console, this complete intercom package gives your staff options to customize how they speak with, scan, or listen in on any room that they choose. Guards can get messages to a cell, cell block, or the entire prison without leaving their post.

The vandal-proof exterior maintains the durability of this intercom system in both physical and acoustically harsh environments. Giving guards, staff, and inmates an intelligible and safe communications platform.
